UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT,

Defendant

UNITED STATES DISTRICT
JUDGE CAROL LOS MANSMANN,

Respondent

QUESTION PRESENTED

Whether the district court abused it's authority in transferring the action to another district in the absence of any facts warranting such a transfer, in the presence of the sworn testimony that such a transfer will be very prejudicious to the petitioner pro se because of his health, and by ignoring petitioner's pro se motion for a hearing to resolve the question of venue.

PERSON AGAINST WHOM RELIEF IS SOUGHT
AND THE REASON WHY THE RELIEF SOUGHT IS NOT AVAILABLE IN ANY OTHER COURT

The petitioner pro se prays that this Court will issue a writ of mandamus directing the Honorable Carol Los Mansmann, U. S. District Judge Western District of Pennsylvania to vacate and set aside his Orders of August 9, 1982 and of December 13, 1982 transferring petitioner's action from the Western District of Pennsylvania to the Northern District of West Virginia.

Petitioner pro se requested relief through his Petition for the Writ of Mandamus to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Court of Appeals by overlooking or ignoring the essential facts: the absence of any evidence in favor of the transfer, the fact that the transfer will be very prejudicious to the petitioner pro se because of his health problem, the fact that the District Court before the issuance of the transfer Order did not rule on petitioner's motion for hearing on venue; denied the Petition for Writ of Mandamus and suggested to the District Court a modified transfer Order that included the reference to 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1404 (a), which was issued by the Honorable Carol Los Mansmann on December 13, 1982.

The transfer of the petitioner's pro se action from the Western District of Pennsylvania in which District petitioner pro se in order to attend the trial would not have to travel, to the Northern District of West Virginia in which District petitioner pro se would have to drive about 50 miles to attend his trial, is very prejudicious to the petitioner pro se who underwent an open heart surgery and for whom the drives of this distance will be very taxing, and will result in petitioner's pro se inferior courtroom performance.

CITATION TO OPINION BELOW

The Opinion and the Order of the U.S.

District Judge Carol Los Mansmann are annexed hereto as a-1* and as a-10, a-11 respectively.

JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1651(a).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS

28 U.S.C. Sec. 1404(a): Change of Venue

(a) For the convenience of parties and witnesses, in the interest of justice, a district court may transfer any civil action to any other district or division where it might have been brought.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner's pro se complaint charging the United States Government with violation of Chapter VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended in 1972, in dismissing him in August 1980 from his position of Research Chemist with the U.S. Department of Energy in Morgantown West Virginia, was filed June 8, 1981 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania properly. He is seeking reinstatement to his former position with backpay, back benefits, and damages in excess of $10,000. Jurisdiction under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e-16 is invoked.

July 17, 1981 U.S. Government filed the motion to dismiss for lack of venue in the Western District of Pennsylvania. In his response petitioner showed that the venue in the Western District of Pennsylvania was proper because due to his health, justice could only be served in that District. Proper venue under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e-5(f)(3) was confirmed by the District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania by the Order dated October 30, 1981. In this Order U.S. Government's motion to dismiss was denied.

October 23, 1981 U.S. Government filed its motion to transfer the case to the Northern District of West Virginia (a-12,14). November 2, 1981 petitioner filed his Motion to Resolve the Question of Venue (a-15,16). The District Court so far did not rule on this Motion. By the Order of the Magistrate the U.S. Government was ordered to file a brief in support of its Motion by December 11, 1981, the petitioner was ordered to file his answer by January 8, 1982. December 9, 1981 U.S. Government's brief was served upon the petitioner. This brief was never filed in the District Court, as the Clerk's docket entries show. Petitioner's answer, which was ordered by the Magistrate November 17, 1981, was filed January 7, 1982 (a-18). The petitioner showed there that the Western District of Pennsylvania was unquestionably the most convenient forum for everybody. January 14, 1982 the Magistrate issued her Report and Recommendation on this motion, recommending that the motion to transfer be denied, because the U.S. Government did not show any reasons for transfer; the parties were permitted ten days to file objections to Magistrate's Report and Recommendation. The U.S. Government did not file any objections.

January 13, 1982 the petitioner filed his Motion for Summary Judgment Hearing supported by the Affidavit of George L. Karapinka which showed that the petitioner was dismissed from his position with the U.S. Department of Energy on the basis of the perjurious testimony of the U.S. Government's witness. January 19, 1982 the Magistrate issued her Report and Recommendation, recommending that the motion for summary judgment(?) be denied, although the petitioner moved for the summary judgment hearing. Since no ruling by the District Court was passed on this Motion for Summary Judgment Hearing in 30 days, the petitioner filed notice of appeal February 16, 1982. The appeal was dismissed by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit May 7, 1982 for lack of jurisdiction.

August 9, 1982 U.S. District Judge Carol Los Mansmann's Order (a-10) granted U.S. Government's motion to transfer case to the Northern District of West Virginia. The attached Opinion of Honorable Carol Los Mansmann (a-2) states mistakenly, among other things, that the only unresolved motions are: "a Motion for Summary Judgment filed by the Plaintiff and a Motion to Transfer filed by the Defendant". Factually the Motion filed by the plaintiff was for Summary Judgment Hearing. Honorable Carol Los Mansmann fails to mention petitioner's pending Motion to Resolve the Question of Venue (a-15, 16) which was filed November 2, 1981. Judge Los Mansmann further suggests (a-5) that the petitioner amended his complaint. The quoted information (a-5) was taken from the information supplied by the petitioner in answer to the Magistrate's questions; it was not an amendment to the complaint. The Honorable Judge concludes (a-7) that in his reading of 42 U.S.C. 2000e-5(f)(3) (pursuant to that statute the District Court confirmed the venue in the Western District of Pennsylvania on October 30, 1981), the venue is not proper in the Western District of Pennsylvania. Further the Opinion states (a-8) that the defendant seeks transfer of this action to the Northern District of West Virginia pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1404(a). This statement is totally unsupported by the record, nowhere on the record did the U.S. Government seek the transfer pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1404(a).

August 14, 1982 petitioner mailed his Motion for Stay of Order (dated August 9, 1982) to the District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. The District Court never ruled on this Motion which was based on the Petition for Writ of Mandamus to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, which was mailed to the Court of Appeals August 17, 1982.

By a copy of a letter dated August 17, 1982 from Gilbert W. Conley, Clerk District Court for the Western District Pennsylvania to Thomas F. Stafford, Clerk District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia the petitioner was informed that the District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania had filed an appeal in petitioner's case.

August 27, 1982 petitioner received notification from the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit that an appeal No. 82-5504 was filed in petitioner's case and a letter informing him that this appeal will be submitted to a panel for possible dismissal due to a jurisdictional defect. This appeal was filed for the petitioner against petitioner's will.

The Court of Appeals by the Order of October 19, 1982 directed the U.S. Government to file an answer to the petition for mandamus within twenty days.

November 4, 1982 a copy of the Brief by the United States in Opposition to Petition for a Writ of Mandamus containing irrelevant documents that were never filed in the District Court, was served.

November 13, 1982 petitioner mailed to the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit his Motion to Strike the Brief by the United States in Opposition to Petition for a Writ of Mandamus. The reasons for this Motion were the facts: 1) the Court of Appeals directed the U.S. Government to file an answer not a brief (violation of Rule 21 of F.R.A.P.), 2) the brief was totally irrelevant to the U.S. Government's Motion to Transfer and to the Petition for a Writ of Mandamus, 3) the main reason for this Motion to Strike was the fact that the Brief contained documents never filed in the District Court, namely the Brief in Support of Motion to Transfer with exhibits, as the Docket Entries of the District Court clearly show. The Court of Appeals did not rule on this motion to strike. Petitioner moved twice for the ruling on that motion to strike. By the Order of Circuit Judge Weis dated January 13, 1983, the motion to strike was denied, thus allowing into the Court of Appeals' record documents like the Brief in Support of Motion to Transfer which were never filed in the District Court.

By the Memorandum and Order dated December 6, 1982 , the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit denied Petition for a Writ of Mandamus, and it suggested to the District Court a modification of the District Court's Order dated August 9, 1982.

December 16, 1982 the modified version (modification suggested by the Court of Appeals) of the Order to transfer (a-11) was received by the petitioner.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

THE DISTRICT COURT ABUSED IT'S AUTHORITY IN TRANSFERRING THE ACTION TO ANOTHER DISTRICT IN THE ABSENCE OF ANY FACTS WARRANTING SUCH A TRANSFER, IN THE PRESENCE OF THE SWORN TESTIMONY THAT SUCH A TRANSFER WILL BE VERY PREJUDICIAL TO THE PETITIONER PRO SE BECAUSE OF HIS HEALTH, AND BY IGNORING PETITIONER'S PRO SE MOTION FOR A HEARING TO RESOLVE THE QUESTION OF VENUE.

The unanimous ruling of the Courts on venue is that the plaintiff's choice of forum is of paramount importance. This ruling is summarized by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in Shutte v. Armco Steel Corporation, 431 F.2d 22 at 25:

"It is black letter law that a plaintiff's choice of a proper forum is a paramount consideration in any determination of a transfer request, and that choice" should not be lightly disturbed." Ungrund v. Cunningham Brothers, Inc., 300 F.Supp. 270, 272 (S.D.Ill.1969). In accord with that sound doctrine, one district court recently correctly observed: "The decision to transfer is in the court's discretion, but the transfer is not to be liberally granted." Handlos v. Litton Industries, Inc., 304 F. Supp. 347, 352 (E.D.Wis.1969). The burden is on the moving party to establish that a balancing of proper interests weigh in favor of the transfer, Everprest, Inc. v. Phillips-Van Heusen Corp., 300 F.Supp. 757 (M.D.Ala. 1969), and " unless the balance of convenience of the parties is strongly in favor of the defendant, the plaintiff's choice of forum should prevail." Owatonna Manufacturing Company v. Melroe Company, 301 F.Supp. 1296, 1307 (D.Minn.1969). (Emphasis supplied.)"

According to Shutte v. Armco Steel Corporation, supra, the Honorable Los Mansmann did not have a single ground for transfer of the case to the Northern District of West Virginia. The petitioner in his answer (a7/8) named his six witnesses and the locations from which they will have to travel to the site of the trial. The travel for these witnesses to Pittsburgh, Western District of Pennsylvania is unquestionably more convenient than to any location of the District Court in Northern District of West Virginia. On the other hand, according to District Court's record, the U.S. Government did not name the witnesses it will be using at the trial nor did it name the locations from which they will have to travel to the site of the trial. Considering the distances from Morgantown, W.V. to Pittsburgh, Pa. (70 miles) and from Morgantown to Clarksburg, W.V. (50 miles), therefore if the trial were to be held in Clarksburg W.V. and any of the witnesses were to travel there from Morgantown, W.V., it would be only 20 miles shorter on I-79 than to Pittsburgh, Pa. For the six petitioner's witnesses Clarksburg, W.V. would be very inconvenient. For example his three witnesses reside in Washington, D.C. and the regular roundtrip air fare on USAir from there to Pittsburgh, Pa. is only $190; but from Washington, D.C. to Clarksburg, W.V. it is $276 (December 14, 1982 quotes).

However, the main factor in favor of Pittsburgh location is petitioner's pro se health problem, see Affidavit of George L. Karapinka, a-16. For the petitioner pro se to drive every day from Morgantown to Clarksburg during a possibly long trial, would be very prejudicious since he is his own attorney and driving will impare his courtroom performance. On the other hand if the trial were to be held in Pittsburgh, Pa. then the petitioner pro se could stay at his partial residence in his sister's home, avoiding any driving, in Pittsburgh, Pa. for the duration of the trial and thus he will be able to prosecute his case much better.

It has to be stressed that the Magistrate in her Report and Recommendation dated January 14, 1982 did not find a single fact to support the transfer of the case to the Northern District of West Virginia. She, therefore, recommended that the U.S. Government's motion to transfer be denied. U.S. Government had ten days to object; it did not.

It also has to be stressed that petitioner filed a motion for a venue hearing, Motion to Resolve the Question of Venue (a-15,16), which was filed in the District Court ten days after the U.S. Government's Motion to Transfer Case to the Northern District of West Virginia (a-12) and nine month before the issuance of the transfer Order. The Honorable Los Mansmann refused to rule on petitioner's Motion to Resolve the Qestion of Venue. He also chose to disregard, in view of the fact that U.S. Government did not present a single fact in favor of transfer, Magistrate's Report and Recommendation dated January 14, 1982 which recommended that U.S. Government's motion to transfer be denied.

The consensus of the Courts for the need of a venue hearing, in cases where there are questions in regard to the facts warranting a transfer of venue, is best expressed by the ruling in Plum Tree, Inc. v. Stockment, 488 F.2d 754 (3d Cir. 1973) at 756:

"We do not hold that a hearing is necessarily required on every transfer motion, but where, as here, the evidence and arguments supporting transfer were in doubt, a hearing or conference would have been desirable before the district court decided the motion. ... The more significant difficulty here, however, is that there was no evidence before the district court upon which it could base a finding that the transfer order was justified."

The situation in this case under consideration is very similar to the case of Plum Tree, Inc. v. Stockment, quoted above.

CONCLUSION

On the basis of all the facts presented here, the petitioner pro se prays this Court to issue a Writ of Mandamus directing the Honorable Carol Los Mansmann to vacate and set aside his Orders of August 9, 1982 and of December 13, 1982 transferring the petitioner's case from the Western District of Pennsylvania to the Northern District of West Virginia.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This case comes before this Court on a Complaint filed pro se by Plaintiff in which he alleges, inter alia, that he was dismissed from his position as research chemist from the United States Department of Energy because of his national origin and as a reprisal for pointing out instances of mismanagement in the Department. Plaintiff further alleges that his First Amendment right of free speech and his right of privacy in his mail were also violated. He brings his action pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act.

Plaintiff's Complaint was received by the Clerk of Court on June 8, 1981, and was referred to the United States Magistrate for pre-trial proceedings in accordance with the Magistrate's Act, 28 U.S.C. Sec. 636(b)(1) and Rules 3 and 4 of the Local Rules for Magistrates. Numerous pre-trial motions were filed and decided by the Magistrate, whose Report and Recommendations were subsequently adopted by U.S. District Judge Maurice B. Cohill. Those motions have been resolved and are not under consideration here.

At issue before this Court are two pending motions: a Motion for Summary Judgment filed by the Plaintiff and a Motion to Transfer filed by the Defendant. Both Motions were decided by the Magistrate and each was the subject of a separate Report and Recommendation. Since this Court is of the opinion that venue does not properly lie within the Western District of Pennsylvania, and is, therefore, granting the Motion to Transfer, the Motion for Summary Judgment is not addressed.¹ Only the Motion to Transfer is at

The factual background of this case shows that on August 8, 1980, Plaintiff was dismissed from his position as a research chemist for the United States Department of Energy in Morgantown, West Virginia. Plaintiff appealed this dismissal to the Merit System Protection Board (MSPB), which sustained the finding of the Philadelphia Field Office of the Board that Plaintiff had been removed from his position because of inefficient performance. Plaintiff then filed the instant action in the Western District of Pennsylvania and Defendant responded by filing a Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Venue which was, after a de novo review of the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation, denied by District Judge Cohill. Defendant then filed a Motion to Transfer, alleging in essence that venue was improper since there are no contacts in this judicial district whatsoever, since Plaintiff was employed, resided and presently resides in West Virginia; all of the employment records are in West Virginia; and all of the witnesses are in West Virginia.

On January 14, 1982, the Magistrate filed a Report which recommended that Defendant's Motion to Transfer be denied. The parties were given ten days from the day of service to file objections to the Report and Recommendation.²

²If timely objections are filed, the district court is required to conduct a de novo review. However, if no objections are filed, it is within the discretion of the court to determine the standard of review. Since under the Federal Magistrate Act, 28 U.S.C.A. 636 (b)(1) the ultimate decision is to be made by the district judge and not the magistrate, the district judge is precluded only from accepting the magistrate's report and recommendation without any review whatsoever. Webb v. Califano, 468 F. Supp. 825 (E.D. Cal. 1979). The court is aware of Park Motor Mart, Inc. v. Ford Motor Co., 616 F.2d 603 (1st Cir. 1980) in which failure to file objections resulted in the forfeiture of the right of appeal from the district court's judgment, but since that is not at issue here, Park is not dispositive.

Although a resident of Morgantown, West Virginia, Plaintiff states that he filed his action here solely because, as the result of surgery, he stays part of the time with his sister in Pittsburgh, PA. It should be noted that Plaintiff had been permitted to amend his Complaint and he alleged therein that:

- "1. All of the discriminatory practices committed against me in the United States Government were done in Morgantown (Northern West Virginia), with the exception of:
 - a) The harrassment to prevent the filing of my patent application. The violations were performed in Morgantown (Northern West Virginia), Oak Ridge (Tennessee) and Washington (District of Columbia).
 - b) The unlawfull (sic) discriminatory practices of the U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board in the process of my appeal were committed in Morgantown (Northern West Virginia), (sic) Philadelphia (Pennsylvania), Washington (District of Columbia). I do not know where the falsification of the transcript of my appeal hearing was committed.
2. The employment records relavant (sic) to the unlawfull and discriminatory practices of the United States Government against me are probably maintained and administered in the judicial district of Northern West Virginia.
3. I probably would have worked in the judicial district of Northern West Virginia if I had not been removed from my position. There was a possibility of my transfer to Pittsburgh (Pennsylvania), Washington (District of Columbia), or other Department of Energy locations."

Since Plaintiff is a federal employee, the applicable statute in determining the proper venue for an employment discrimination suit is 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e-16. Subsection (d) of that Act adopts 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e-5(f) which states:

- (3) Each United States district court and each United States court of a place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States shall have jurisdiction of actions brought under this subchapter. Such an action may be brought in any judicial district in the State in which the unlawful employment practice is alleged to have been committed, in the judicial district in which the employment records relevant to such practice are maintained and administered, or in the judicial district in which the aggrieved person would have worked but for the alleged unlawful employment practice, but if the respondent is not found within any such district, such an action may be brought within the judicial district in which the respondent has his principal office.

The Magistrate interpreted the above statute as positing venue anywhere in the state where an unlawful discriminatory act was committed and therefore recommended that the Motion to Transfer be denied because Plaintiff alleged that such unlawful "practices were committed, inter alia, in Philadelphia, PA" (namely, by the MSPB) and that venue was, therefore, proper in any judicial district in Pennsylvania.

In reading 42 U.S.C. 2000e-5(f), this Court reaches a contrary conclusion since it does not believe that the phrase "in which the unlawful employment practice is alleged to have been committed," etc., is a dependent clause which modifies "in the State". The antecedent of the dependent clause is not "in the State" but "any judicial district" which is also modified by "in the State". Assuming as true Plaintiff's allegations that unlawful discriminatory practices were committed by the MSPB against him in Philadelphia, PA, those acts were committed in the Eastern District of Philadelphia and not in the Western District where Plaintiff has filed his Complaint. Therefore, in order to rely on that section of the statute, Plaintiff action should have been maintained in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

However, Defendant seeks transfer of this action to the Northern District of West Virginia pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1404 (a). "Venue is primarily designed to protect defendants from inconvenient forums and courts from inconvenient lawsuits." Whittier v. Emmett, 281 F.2d 24, 30 (D.C. Cir. 1960). An examination of Plaintiff's responses to the Magistrate's request to amend his Complaint demonstrates that according to his allegations the majority of the discriminatory practices were committed in Northern West Virginia; harassment to prevent filing of his patent application occurred in Northern West Virginia, inter alia; unlawful discriminatory practices by the United States Merit Systems Protection Board occurred in Northern West Virginia, inter alia; employment records relevant to the discriminatory practices may be maintained in Northern West Virginia, inter alia; and Plaintiff, had he not been removed from his position, would probably have continued to work in Northern West Virginia.

Interpreting Plaintiff's statements in the light most favorable to him and bearing in mind the purpose of venue statutes, Defendant's Motion to Transfer to the Northern District of West Virginia is granted. It being the determination of this Court that venue is not proper in the Western District of Pennsylvania, Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment is not properly before this Court and will be sent with the record for consideration before the Court in the Northern District of West Virginia. GEORGE L. KARAPINKA

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT,
Defendant

Civil Action
No. 81-915

ANSWER IN OPPOSITION TO THE MOTION TO TRANSFER THE CASE TO THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA

The plaintiff respectfully requests the Honorable Court to dismiss the defendant's motion to transfer this case for the following reasons:

1. The unsworn alligations listed under "Facts" of the dwfendant's Brief in Support of Motion to Transfer are totally irrelevant to the subject matter of this motion. So are the unsworn Exhibits, which in addition of not being relevant, are prejudicious to the plaintiff.

2. The affidavit of Judith K. Giltenboth is meaningless. The affiant does not have first hand information. She avers to the unsworn information obtained from some agents. Contrary to the information in the affidavit the records relevant to this action of Inspector General, U.S. Department of Energy are not located in West Virginia, they were and are located in Washington, D.C. The records of Special Counsel, U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board and the records of U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board were and are located in Washington, D.C. and Philadelphia, Pa. All of these agencies are part to this action (see the complaint).

The main fallacy of defendant's argument is the omission of the fact that there is no U.S. District Courthouse in Morgantown, W.V. Transportation of the records and witnesses from Morgantown, W.V. to the courthouse in the Northern District of West Virginia would be at least as difficult and expensive as their transportation to Pittsburgh, Pa. Transportation of witnesses from Morgantown, W.V. to Pittsburgh, Pa. is more convenient than to the U.S. District courthouse of the Northern District of West Virginia in Elkins or most probably in Wheeling, W.V. Wheeling and Pittsburgh are roughly equidistant from Morgantown. Moreover, it will be much more feasible for the following witnesses, all U.S. Government employees, to travel to Pittsburgh, Pa.: Wm. J. Bayley resident of Washington, Pa.; D.A. Fontinella, B.D. Prasher, S.J. Sugiyama all residents of Washington, D.C. area; F.L. Fishman resident of Philadelphia, Pa. area; E.L. Larcher resident of Oak Ridge, Tenn. area; than to travel to the Northern District of West Virginia courthouse, most probably, in Wheeling, W.V. All of these witnesses will be subpoenaed.

3. The most important reason why this action should remain in the Western District of Pennsylvania, is plaintiff's health reason. As described in the previous pleadings, inter alia, affidavit of George L. Karapinka to support his right of venue in the Western District of Pennsylvania, filed November 2, 1981 the plaintiff underwent the open heart surgery to replace his aortic valve, and drives from Morgantown, W.V. to Elkins or most probably to Wheeling, W.V. will impare his performance in the courtroom. During the proceedings on this action in Pittsburgh, Pa., the plaintiff will reside at his sister's apartement in Pittsburgh, Pa. The transfer of this action to the Northern District of West Virginia will be prejudicious to the plaintiff. Therefore, the justice will only be served in the Western District of Pennsylvania (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and not in the Northern District of West Virginia.

Respectfully submitted,

x George L. Karapinka
